

You will need at least 5 images from different textiles. They could be details or the overall image of rugs, mantles, shawls, ponchos, curtains, etc. Your textiles should have motifs that will be the source of inspiration for our new alphabets.

Tools

- ✎ Some of your favorite tools: ruling, cola, folded, parallel and / or automatic pen. Copperplate, Speedball B, and special effect nibs like the Mitchell/Rexel scroll, or music nibs
- ✎ Several round brushes for painting and writing. Numbers between 2 & 8. Pentel brush
- ✎ Artliners applicator (used by Yukimi)
- ✎ Watercolor or gouache and walnut ink
- ✎ Two buckets for water
- ✎ Palette to prepare colors and a pipettes to collect them
- ✎ Containers with lids to store prepared colors
- ✎ Pipette
- ✎ Pencil, eraser
- ✎ Paper tape, UHU glue stick, double stick tape
- ✎ Masking fluid
- ✎ Colored pencils
- ✎ A portable light table would be very useful. If you don't have one you can create one with a portable easel with a light underneath to be able to trace in a comfortable way

Paper

- ✎ Some sheets of your favorite layout paper
- ✎ Some sheets of tracing paper
- ✎ Some sheets of paper A4, letter, or approximately the same size. You could either purchase a block, or have your page cut in advance from an Arches Text Wove sheet. From a sheet of 22" x 30" you get 8 pages of 8" x 11" If not, consider a light weight watercolor paper with a smooth surface. Light paper is anything less than 140lb/300gsm

- ✎ Paper towels or rags

Miscellaneous or Materials we could or not use

- ✎ Fine liners like Micron, Edding, drawliner or anything similar
- ✎ Embroidery needle & thread
- ✎ Extra nibs to stick, sew, or glue into your work
- ✎ Finally, by the end of the workshop, I will ask you to color copy on a good quality paper, maybe the Text Wove, a couple of your works to weave them together. You will then need:
- ✎ A soft (A4/letter or approximate size) cardboard, 2 or 3mm thick, glue stick, straight edge metallic ruler & sharp cutter
